Marriages and divorces, 2008

The data for marriages and divorces are in two separate files. The files are flat, ASCII, fixed format, with one line of given length per record. This format was chosen so as to make the data usable with as many statistical programs as possible, and thus accessible to as wide a range of people as possible.

Other important information can be found in the:

Divorce Form (Form 07-04) for divorces only

Relevant statistical release: Marriages and divorces 2008 statistical release (P0307)

THE DATA FILES

Each file contains the following information for each variable:

Description of variables.

Descriptive name: This is a short description of the variable with the variable name in brackets.

Position of the variable: The position of a variable within a record is recorded in the format (@xxx y.). “@xxx” indicates that the variable starts at position (i.e. column) xxx, and “y” indicates the length of the field. All variables are numeric and right justified.

Final code list: The range of valid values for variables. For continuous variables it only reflects the upper and lower limits.

Missing value: The code for “missing”/“unspecified” values is given for each variable.

Note to users: Additional information for further clarity on questions.

DATA FILE: CIVIL MARRIAGES

Methodology

1. System design

The registration of civil marriages in South Africa falls under the jurisdiction of the Department of Home Affairs.

As the department's functions are centralised at Head Office in Pretoria, this mean that all information regarding registered marriages is first sent to Pretoria before being sent to any other government agency.

2. Coverage

The target population is all civil marriages recorded in the National Population Register in 2008 by the Department of Home Affairs.

3. Data Capturing

Data capturing is done by the Department of Home Affairs. Stats SA accesses the electronic data through the State Information Technology Agency (SITA).

4. Confidentiality

The information remains confidential to Stats SA and will only be published in aggregated form. The Statistics Act (Act No.6 of 1999) prohibits the disclosure of information regarding individuals to any person concerned or the person's lawful representative.

Methodology

1. Form design

The divorce form (Form 07-04) is administered by Statistics South Africa (Stats SA). The form was designed in collaboration with stakeholders and other role players, such as the Department of Home Affairs, Office of the Family Advocate, Department of Social Development, religious leaders, and other interested organisations and institutions.

The electronic version of Form 07-04 is deposited with each of the following courts: Grahamstown, Kimberly, Port Elizabeth, Durban, Pietermaritzburg, Johannesburg, Pretoria, Bloemfontein, Ferreirsdorp Central, North Eastern Durban and Southern Court King Williams Town.

2. Coverage

The divorce data cover civil marriages that were granted divorce in 2008 by the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development.

3. Data capturing

Upon receipt of the forms at Stats SA, they are counted and sorted (into bundles) according to the different courts and months of the year and captured.

4. Confidentiality

Stats SA has not included certain fields in the data set on the CD, in order to preserve the confidentiality of individual records.
