Dear Laura

Re: OER in and as MOOCs: An analysis of impact on educators' practices in African-developed higher education courses

The Research Ethics Committee of the Centre for Higher Education Development has reviewed the documentation submitted to it by Michael Glover in respect of the above proposed research study.

I am pleased to confirm that the REC has approved the study to proceed at the University of Cape Town on the terms specified in the submissions to the committee. Should the research focus and process change in any substantive way, you are requested to make a new submission to the committee.

We wish you all the best with the research.

Yours sincerely
